

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Pain is the only indication of imbalance in the athlete body?
T F
2. Athlete preparation and recovery is the most important part of an injury prevention program.
T F
3. Tight muscles are acceptable if it is an inherited trait.
T F
4. Better athletes typically have less imbalances and dysfunction.
T F
5. Attention to proper form and technique guarantees the proper utilization of target muscles.
T F
6. Rest is the best recommendation for an "overuse" diagnosis.
T F
7. Learning the official medical diagnosis helps to effectively treat a condition.
T F
8. Deadlifting should be avoided by back patients and the elderly.
T F
9. Treating the site of the pain is the most effective way to treat the cause of a condition.
T F
10. Glute bridging will always target and build the Glutes.
T F